Pope's Tweet ... "Each of us is the wounded man, and the Good Samaritan is Jesus, who approached us and took care of us."

This Bulletin Is For Two Weeks

Father's Corner ... Marriage continued: 2. The world sees marriage on TV as only romantic, that it can be dissolved when one partner is not happy, or that it is a legal contract for determining property and responsibilities. This is not a true understanding of marriage! We see Marriage as a SACRAMENT. It is a covenant. A sacrament is "An outward sign instituted by Christ for the giving of His grace. A Marriage is something we do – the wedding ceremony - that was given by Christ - the Wedding in Cana - for the giving of His grace to the married couple to join them together as God intended. The ongoing outward sign of the Sacrament of Marriage is the couple's love for each other. Their love is the sign and proof of the presence of God. We can not see God, but we can see a husband's and wife's love for each other. In the love of marriage, we see the invisible Love of God made visible for us.

You, as spouses, become the sacraments of God's love for each other, and His presence and forgiveness. And you become a sign of all this to the whole world. Each time you open yourself up to your spouse in love you give and receive this sacrament. You get married 1 time, but you receive the sacrament of marriage each day. You live out this sacrament by being life giving to each other on an ongoing bases; as you seek the growth of your partner and yourself.

Pray together. In our society we have a 49% success rate in marriages. If a couple goes to church together that becomes a 71% success rate and if they also pray together they have a 97% success rate.

Holy Trinity in Nezperce will have Mass at 5 pm on November 1, for All Saints Day. Their weekday Masses will be changing to Wednesday and Friday evenings 5:15 pm beginning November 2nd.

A Servant's Reflection . . . With the recent drop in temperatures outside, and after being in the early morning air for hours the other morning, walking into a house that had a wood stove going felt so good. When I walked through the room with the stove and passing by it I felt as though I had no choice but to stop. The heat from the stove stopped me in my tracks as I walked by, I couldn't resist the heat, even though I wasn't cold. All of us, through our lives are drawn into allurements. Be it the heat from a fire, the smells of fresh baked goods, and/ or even the temptations of life that cause us to sin. Jesus talks with James and John, two of his followers this weekend in the Gospel and they ask of Jesus a favor. They want to be placed with Jesus in the heights of Jesus' glory. They want to be on His right and his left. An initial reaction to this could be, me too, who wouldn't want to be in the highest place of paradise with Jesus? But as we consider further, this for them, as well as for US, what do we deserve and can we "drink the Cup" as Jesus asks them, and us to do? Daily you are given challenges to say yes to what God has given you, your "neighbors", and God, do you say yes to "drinking the Cup", this making the right choices? You have a specific sin that is your weakness. The sin that every time you go to confession you confess it...even though during confession you pledge NOT TO SIN ANYMORE. So, to "drink the cup" Jesus talks about means identifying that sin and working on NOT doing it again! Make it a point this next week and month to work on all yours sins but specifically work on your specific weakness, take extra measures to stop it. Let your next confession be without having to confess your repeated weakness...even if it means going to confession only days apart...that is a start! All of us have the desire for Christ and to do his will, "drink of His Cup", but to do it we have to walk past the "heat from our wood stove"!

May the Holy Spirit guide you in all that you do, Ryan
